

Connellsville Area School District

CLASS CUT

A class cut is the failure to attend a particular class or study hall when the student is present at school. The only acceptable excuses for not reporting to class are illness, whereby the student must report to the school nurse, or other rare situations when the student misses a class with authorization from the administration. Students who cut class will be punished at the discretion of the administration. Serious incidents or multiple offenses will result in suspension.